 - (iv) Both the victim/protected person and the defendant/restrained person agree that the criminal protective order may be modified to a less restrictive order.
- (B) A criminal protective order may not be modified to a less restrictive order or to one permitting proposed visitation or custody unless a clause specifically allowing such a modification or amendment is included in the criminal protective order. (See section 2D, supra.)

Such an order shall not contain language that conflicts with a criminal protective order. Safety of all parties shall be the court's paramount concern.
